The following resolutions were moved and adopted:

R-1: RESOLUTION OF COURTESY: THE REV. ROBERT GREER, CALVARY-ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, PHILADELPHIA

RESOLVED: That this 204th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania welcomes the Rev. Robert Greer and extends to him the privilege of a seat and a voice in this Convention.

R-2: RESOLUTION OF COURTESY: MEMORIAL CHAPEL OF THE HOLY COMMUNION

RESOLVED: That the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion be accorded seat and voice in this 204th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania as are all other mission and parish congregations of the Diocese, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion be seated in this 204th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania together with its fellow members of the Southwark Deanery.

The Secretary then called the Convention's attention to the following:

DC 2.9: Clergy Not Eligible to Vote. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #5 with the addition of the Rev. A. Frank Donahue.

DCon.Art. IV.5: Congregations which have not Qualified for Representation. The Secretary listed St. Barnabas, Kensington.

On Claims of Clergy to Seats (DC 2.2; 2.3; SR #1; SO.II.5(5a); DCon IV.1); the Rev. Louis Temme, Chair, reported that there were no claims by the clergy.

On Claims of Laity to Seats (DC 2.4; 5.6; 2.8; SR #2, DCon IV.2.3); Mr. Harry Richards, Chair, reported that there were no claims by the laity.

The Secretary called the Convention's attention to SR #25, Circulation of Literature at Convention. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix #6.

David C. Auten, Esq., Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, reported on the unfinished business from the 203rd Convention, which was the second reading of proposed changes to the Constitution, first approved at the 203rd Convention.

Mr. Auten moved Art. IV.1 which was passed by orders.

Constitution, Article IV, Section 1, Clergy votes at Convention.

Upon the recommendation of various clergy and lay persons, the Committee recommends the deletion of the requirement that clergy be canonically resident within the diocese for six months before the meeting of a Convention in order to have a seat and vote at that Convention. The Committee recommends adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED: That the phrase "... if he has been canonically resident within this diocese for the space of six calendar months next before the meeting of the Convention, and has for the same period been employed in performing the duties of his station..." shall be revised to read as follows:

"...if he or she is canonically resident in this diocese at the actual time of the meeting of the Convention and is then employed in performing the duties of his or her station..."

Explanation: This amendment would permit the enfranchisement of clergy who have been in this diocese less than six months and who now can vote neither in their old nor in their new diocese during that period. It would also clarify that clergy then resident in the diocese could vote at any Convention adjourned and reconvened at a later date.

Mr. Auten then moved Article IX which was passed by orders.

Article IX. Voting requirements at Convention

The Committee recommends elimination of the anomaly in the provision for majority voting in the event that less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to vote is present at a Convention. The Committee recommends adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED: That the first proviso in Article IX of the Constitution which now reads: "Provided, that if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present then two-thirds of the votes of that Order shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order" be revised to read as follows:

"Provided, that if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present, then the votes of that order equal to one-third of the number of that Order entitled to seats and votes shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order."

Explanation: The current article provides for a majority vote if two-thirds or more of those eligible to vote are present, but a two-thirds vote of those present if less than two-thirds of those eligible to vote are present. That means that if 100 are eligible and 67 are present, a majority vote (i.e., 34 votes) is needed to adopt a measure. However, if 66 are present, then two-thirds (i.e., 44 votes) are needed. That is a patently absurd result. The amendment would provide a minimum vote of one-third of those eligible. If 100 are eligible, then 34 would remain the minimum regardless of how many are present.

Mr. Auten reported that in regard to Resolution 13, ON AMENDMENT TO CANON 6 (DIOCESAN COUNCIL) and CANON 8 (DEANERIES), there was no conflict with the Constitution and other Canons; neither was there conflict with Resolution 27: RETIRED CLERGY, CANON 7.8.

Stewart Dalzell, Esq., Chair of the Committee on Resolutions, reported that there were no late resolutions. He reported that Resolution 18 had been withdrawn by the Diocesan Committee on Aging.

There was no report from the Committee on Incorporation.

Nancy S. Ritter, Chair, Committee on Elections (SO.V), called on the Rev. Anna Waid, Chair of the Nominating Committee. Ms. Waid presented the slate of nominees to the Convention (Appendix 7) and announced the withdrawal of the Rev. Daniel Sullivan as a nominee for Standing Committee.

The Bishop then asked for nominations from the floor (SO.V.6) and there were none. It was moved and seconded and adopted that the nominations be closed.

Jefferson M. Moak, Judge of Elections, explained the voting procedure and the first ballot was taken for:

Standing Committee: one clergyperson and one layperson
Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions: one clergyperson and one layperson

The Rev. Thomas Logan moved and it was passed that the Secretary cast one vote for nominations to the Church Foundation:

John D. Forster	Thomas P. Preston
John L. Harrison, Jr.	G. Stephen Voorhees
The Rev. Sheldon M. Smith

The Secretary was directed to cast a unanimous vote for the confirmation of the following to the Cathedral Chapter, with term ending in 1991.

The Rev. James A. Trimble	Robert E. Coughlin
The Very Rev. Donald Graff	Andrew McA. Hunter

Andrew McA. Hunter, Diocesan Treasurer, reported RE 38 (Appendix 8).

Peter Wilmerding, Diocesan Controller, reported on the purchase of the Rittenhouse Square property by the Ameribass firm.

The Rev. John Midwood, Chair, Finance and Property Committee, moved the following resolution:

R-3: ON THE PROPOSED 1988 DIOCESAN PROGRAM BUDGET

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the 204th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopt the following formula for minimum askings from each parish and mission of the Diocese to support the Proposed Diocesan Program Budget for 1988:

50,000	to	100,000	7.5%
100,000	to	130,000	9.0%
130,000	to	190,000	10.0%
190,000	to	230,000	13.0%
230,000	to	350,000	15.0%
350,000	to	450,000	17.5%
450,000	and up		22.5%

Note: This table constitutes an interim step in the creation of a new canon regarding the funding of the Diocesan Program Budget.

FURTHER RESOLVED: That the 204th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorizes that the following procedures be employed by Diocesan Council for reviewing the income and expenditures called for in the 1988 Diocesan Program Budget:

(1) The receipt of the final pledge from each congregation by December 31, 1987; but no later than January 31, 1988.

(2) The amendment of the 1988 Diocesan Program Budget by Diocesan Council at any time during 1988 if the total income differs significantly from the total anticipated in the 1988 Diocesan Program Budget adopted by Diocesan Convention.

APPENDIX 9: ADDRESS BY THE BISHOP OF MITYANA, UGANDA

The Rt. Rev. Yokana Mukasa

I would like to greet you with the slightly altered, but I think appropriate, words of St. Paul to the Romans. "To all in Pennsylvania, who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ."

This is a very special occasion for me - I have attended other Diocesan Conventions, but this is the first time where, in a way, my country and my Diocese are part of the official agenda - at least where I can participate! - This companion relationship is of great significance to Mityana - and it comes at a particularly appropriate time for us - but before I talk about this, I think I should give you a brief outline about Uganda - the people, the church - and of course Mityana.

We gained our independence from Great Britain in 1962. At that time there was in place a fairly healthy social and economic infrastructure - healthy enough (or so we thought) to provide a sound basis for progressive development. As with any newly independent country the first few years were difficult but some progress was made. However, by the early 70's the situation had rapidly changed. Our government was becoming increasingly despotic, corrupt and inhumane and from 1971 to 1986 we lived in a state of ever-increasing turmoil and fear. The brutalities of the 70's were repeated in the atrocities of the 6 year war of the early 80's. This time, in addition to torture and rape, thousands disappeared - were murdered - not just as accidental victims caught in the crossfire of a war - no, they were outright murder victims; thousands more fled internally and externally, some becoming refugees, others going into hiding, and some "herded" into the 12 or 13 "concentration" camps set up in our Diocese. Thousands upon thousands lost their homes, farms, tools, and personal belongings due to destruction and/or looting.

Corruption and immorality ran unchecked at all levels of society, and, as the cost for personal freedom of thought, action and movement increased, self-confidence, self-esteem and morale decreased.

Ugandans are a friendly, easy-going people, hard workers and used to harship, but if I am to be honest, I must also acknowledge that we have had a very long history of tribal difficulties - it is a question of North versus South (a situation you all may be familiar with). But 25 years after our independence the lack of trust, the rivalries and the animosities are still unresolved; and compounded by the events of the past 15 years, the grief, and the guilt, and the horror and fear have left deep imprints on the spirit of our people. Attaining solid national unity and commonality of purpose is something we must all continue to pray for, if indeed we ever hope to rise above our current deficiencies.

My Diocese is in a rural area and in many ways quite conservative, traditional - The majority of our people are not exposed to television, daily newspapers, books, magazines, movies or advertisements - all those things that, when properly used, can encourage and promote change for the better, and can be a means of education. By and large it is still the women of Mityana who are the farmers - who not only grow their own food, but also prepare it; while the men transport timber, charcoal and cash crops to the local market, some are in trade and a few employed at sub-sistance levels as gardeners or taking care of livestock - and I should tell you that the modes of transportation vary from balanced on the top of the head, to wheelbarrows, to the back and front of bicycles and tractors.

Mityana Diocese, situated in an area known as the Luwero Triangle, the battlefield of the civil war, was created in May 1977, in the midst of turmoil and at a time when the Church was experiencing considerable opposition. As per the 1981 census the population was around 600,000 and in spite of deaths and migrations we do not feel that this figure has changed too substantially. It is estimated that 90% of the population are Christians, the largest percentage are Roman Catholics, the next largest Church of Uganda (Anglicans) with 30%.

During the early 60's our farms and plantations (tea, coffee, cotton) were flourishing, the area was rich in resources and progressive, but the forced displacement and dispersal of the population during the 70's and 80's resulted not only in a drastic reduction of income but also in the jungle reclaiming much of the cleared land. In our Diocese alone 13,900 homes and 36 schools and numerous churches were found to be unusable - They had been deroofed, and schools and churches stripped of desks, pews, doors, anything that could be used for firewood. The majority of homes were completely destroyed or left on the verge of collapse. Communication came to a standstill - We were cut off from the capital city of Kampala, just 45 miles away, on whom we relied for electric power, essential commo-dities, mail, and as an outlet for surplus crops, timber, etc. Communica-tions have resumed - the road is in a terrible state of repair but traffic is non-stop, phone service has resumed, though we still battle with the electrical power.

So far I have given you a brief background sketch of the situation, - Now let me turn to the role of the Church. I think I am right when I say that more and more churches throughout the world have come to the reali-zation that gone are the days when it was acceptable to be involved only in so-called "religious" activities; the secular and religious worlds permeate each other, they are interrelated and inter-dependent. No govern-ment, in any country, can provide complete and total welfare services - (at least, shall we say no government in a free country), and usually local "charity" institutions are called to supplement, to help out. And this is much more true in Uganda: we don't really have local charity institutions - and thus it is that, at this time in our history, the Church has been called on to cooperate with official reconstruction efforts and not only that but to spearhead many rehabilitation projects herself. To be called upon to play a vital role in the social and economic revival of the country has placed us in a position of great responsibility; it is indeed a unique opportunity and an enormous challenge, for we find our-selves involved in feeding and clothing our people not only spiritually, but also physically and morally; we are involved in healing: the soul and the body; we are involved in teaching: about God, and nutrition, and farm management - and brothers and sisters, let me tell you that we are ill-equipped to do so - ill-equipped, not only because the task is enormous, but because we lack certain resources, and because we are unsure of how to tap our own resources properly - in many ways we are inexperienced.

Now, I don't want to paint a gloomy picture, nor do I want to leave you with the impression that our clergy and lay workers throughout the Diocese are incompetent or unresourceful - in fact - I think I would like to tell you about a community just 3 miles away from Diocesan Headquarters - I say 3 miles, but the road is quite bad, so sometimes it feels like 30 miles! Anyway - the community consists of six villages - and is known as Lulagala - the population is about 8,000 people - on church land there is a Primary School, a Dispensary and a small Maternity. The Dispensary and Maternity are part of a community based health care program that caters to everyone, regardless of religion. The people of this community built the maternity themselves - and at minimal cost (for wood and hardware), but the bricks were made locally and the cement, a mixture of cow dung and sand from nearby Lake Wamala, the roof thatched with papyrus reeds and the labour mostly voluntary. A community effort spearheaded by the Church of Uganda. There are two midwives and I understand that in the first six weeks of operation 25 babies were delivered at the Maternity with no problems for anyone! And this in spite of the fact that the maternity is in need of basic equipment and both Maternity and Dispensary, like most others, are in need of drugs. The people of Lulagala are so encouraged that they are now starting work on a church building. This picture is a representative of many others within the Diocese.

As I reflect on the role of the Church, I am reminded that people have so often said to us you are a growing church, how do you do it? Others have asked what kept you all going during those troubled years? And I don't know what to answer. And then there is the majority that say "You are such a strong Church? Why? From where I sit I always see that more work needs to be done, that greater effort and seriousness of commit-ment are needed. I have large Confirmation and I find that I pray that at least half the candidates will remain faithful to our teaching. I see the areas in which we are weak and I search my mind for ways in which to strengthen them - All this is the work of a Bishop - Your own Bishops will tell you the same thing. But they won't tell you - because the situation here is different - that we find ourselves plunging headlong into projects, situations that we don't really know much about - and you know, we really have no choice in the matter. For example, the Diocesan Health Officer is not a doctor or an administrator, he's a clergyman - and he oversees all the Church dispensaries, maternities, and clinics, and he distributes the drugs we receive - the alternative would be to have no health care facilities at all - I give thanks that we have competent nurses staffing these places - and by the same token, I'm sure that when I ordained this young man he didn't expect to be put in charge of all the health clinics!

In some respects we are very naive - we don't know that we can't do something until we've tried it. Many, many years ago they used to say of the Salvation Army people that they "ventured where angels feared to tread"; well, this sounds like us - we forge ahead where the experts would approach with caution!

Without really knowing it or planning it, we are vulnerable, we take risks, we are open to the possibility of failure, even ridicule - and my friends - when you think about it, isn't this what we are called to do - to be open enough so that God's Grace may work in us? You see, the Church, as Church (ECCLESIA) isn't called to be successful - that is successful in business terms - nor is the Church called to be strong and forceful - strong and forceful as the world understands those terms - no, the Church is called to be weak - to be weak simply because God's power is made perfect in our very weakness! If we were all strong and successful we wouldn't need God, would we?! The reality then is that the Church of Uganda is not strong because it is rich or dynamic, forward looking or deeply spiritual, or even because it may be growing, no, if we are strong then it is only because we are so very weak, and God, in his infinite mercy and love, has filled the gap!

This is the kind of church you will be working with; a very weak church that relies and trusts very, very heavily on God!

At the beginning of this address I said that this companion relationship had come at an appropriate time for us, and in a statement I sent to Bishop Bartlett I expressed concern about an unequal partnership and I also compared the situation in the Diocese with that of seedlings - seedlings that are struggling to send down firm roots and to grow up into established plants/trees. Under ideal conditions - sun, soil, water, fertilizer - the plants flourish. In Uganda, we have rich, lush, green vegetation, the product of plenty of unpredictable rainfall, and if you aren't careful the jungle - the bush, can take over in no time! But, when it comes to crops - our food, our livelihood - it's very different. The rainy season is not as predictable as it used to be, deforestation has changed the start (and even quantity) of the rainy season - and water becomes a precious commodity; we don't have running water in our homes, let alone irrigation systems on our farms and vegetable gardens - The beginning of the planting season is a struggle - you pray for rain, and water with your hand, by the spoonful, hoping to encourage each seed to release its vital energy and living forces - and even when that is accomplished it faces a new challenge - Having germinated, will it now survive; as the seed pushes its way up through the soil, you may have to continue to water it, but not quite so often, because you hope the seedling will find strength within itself and from the surrounding soil to continue to grow and develop, and, yes, flourish.

Our relationship with you is a challenge for us - a challenge because as seedlings we must now look deep within ourselves and to our surroundings in order to find our hidden resources, so that we may continue to grow and develop, and flourish. Yes, God's timing is perfect - had we entered into this relationship a year ago I think we would have been so wrapped up in our misfortune that in all likelihood we would have totally ignored the relationship or else have become too dependent on you!

Our journey together- as individuals and collectively as Dioceses - must not only cross oceans and continents, embrace other races and cultures, and be a wonderful and colorful way of exchanging information and ideas, of sharing burdens and joys and of bearing witness to the fact that we are disciples of Jesus Christ because we love one another. While this is certainly admirable, I believe that our journey must go further than this - it must reshape our lives, transform our innermost being, convert us more deeply to Christ. Our outward expressions of discipleship, which will provide opportunities for each of us to "die" a little, must be a reflection of our continuing inner transformation at the hands of the Holy Spirit; until, in the words of St. Paul to the Ephesians..." we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ." (Eph 4:12b-13). AMEN.

APPENDIX 10 : THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

The Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett, Jr.

IN CHRIST THE HOUSEHOLD LOOKS FORWARD

Ephesians 2:19-20 You are no longer strangers and sojourners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the Household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone.

Before I get serious about this great text, let me twist it completely out of shape and make an application that was never intended: after more than a year and a half together I sense that you of this Convention and I are no longer strangers. We are now fellow citizens and members together of the Household of God.

I have visited, met in, or worshipped at 130 of our 170 congregations so far. I have come to experience this region from the banks of the Delaware to the hills of Honeybrook, from the artists of New Hope to the double-parked beer trucks of center city. More to the point, I have experienced you as unfailingly friendly, welcoming, expectant. There is the sense of being of one household, and a household not divided upon itself. As with any family, there are a few eccentrics, and a few hard of hearing, a few adolescents, and a few kids who get their heads stuck in the banister; and sometimes your Bishop may appear in each of those roles, but it's all in the family.

And so, more seriously, the question that comes before us--the question that this text raises for us--is how are we to live as the household of God in the years immediately ahead? It is my conviction that God is calling us to move forward together, in certain very specific ways. I believe that as fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, we are summoned to move ahead in the Spirit of Christ.

Let me be more specific. I will speak under the three headings that may have become familiar to you in the Mission Strategy Report.

First of all, I believe that we are called in our time to witness to the resurrection.

Our times are filled with so much bad news, so much destruction and death.

The newspapers and news shows are bad enough, with their stories of natural disasters, accidents, crime, and crash. But it is the same with much so-called entertainment.

Last week I was on a cross-country flight, and they showed a movie on the cabin screen. I had a lot of homework to do, so I didn't even check out one of the headsets. Seeing the picture without sound gives one a curious sense of detachment from the action. I was increasingly flabbergasted, for every time I glanced up at the screen someone else was being wiped out in progressively more astonishing ways--pistol, rifle, flaming car, thrown off a building, and so on. I suppose thirty people must have died. This in the name of entertainment! And we wonder why random violence occurs!

Jesus said, "I came that they might have life, and have it more abundantly." And the message of Jesus was confirmed by the resurrection: beyond the pain, beyond death, beyond the cross is the resurrection, victory, life.

We have that assurance and we have that message to proclaim to a world drowning in despair.

We witness to the resurrection in many ways. Bishop Mukasa in speaking to a Vestry Wednesday night spoke of the suffering that both his nation and his family underwent...yet their faith, their growing faith. We hear from our other visiting bishops from Africa remarkable stories of the spectacular spread of faith.

In our Diocese we have witnessed to the resurrection in many ways -- campus ministries, youth work, evangelism workshops, and many others. It is my conviction, however, that God is calling us to do more, much more. Without ceasing to be engaged in our present important ministries, we are called to plant new congregations in growing, new areas; redevelop and strengthen congregations which are valiantly holding up the light of Christ in areas of difficulty and despair; expand our ministry among the growing Hispanic community; plant a congregation of Korean Episcopalians; develop an urban training center in North Philadelphia.

The common theme here is congregational development. The congregation is not the only form of ministry, but it is the basic building block of Christianity. It is not perfect, God knows, for it is made up of human sinners; but like the human cell, it has remarkable resistance to disease and ability to adapt. And it is the form of community through which most of us hear God's word of encouragement and conviction, are fed by His sacraments, and receive the summons we need to carry out our ministries--proclaiming the Good News and serving the needs of God's people, far and near.

Secondly, we are called to be channels of compassion. The needs of the world are sharp, insistent, painful. Small, stubborn wars smolder in corners of the world: Central America, Afghanistan. Major conflict threatens in the Persion Gulf. Oppression is brutal in South Africa.

In our own areas, one has only to drive through North Philadelphia or Kensington to get a vivid glimpse of human need. Yet many Episcopalians live there!

As fellow citizens with those saints, as members of the household of God, we are called to respond. We can and we must be channels of Christ's compassion.

The great scourge of our time, world-wide and locally, appears to be Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome. I call for a major program of ministry to patients, families and friends of those affected by AIDS, and the wider community. We have made an outstanding beginning through our highly effective AIDS Committee. Let us build on this foundation.

We have many strong groups in this Diocese, working actively in the fields of social justice, peace, and ministries of compassion. Episcopal Community Services is one outstanding example of service ministry. I also believe that there are people in every parish who sense a call to be channels of compassion to God's suffering people. I believe we need to expand and coordinate our support of this work.

A word about the Vocational Diaconate. This is a program authorized by our National Canons, used in our Diocese, and practiced increasingly widely in the Episcopal Church. It is a servant ministry by persons who generally retain their secular occupation. A fine study committee of our Diocese, made up of clergy and laity, recommended its expansion. Its focus is upon ministry to human need, and I believe it can enhance the ministry of compassion in our household. I hope the Convention will affirm this in principle, and I invite all clergy to join with me to discuss this at a meeting here at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, November 19. Interested laity are welcome, as well. I will welcome all ideas, as will the Committee overseeing this program. It is still in formation.

Thirdly and lastly, this household of God is called to serve as an instrument of unity. I believe that in this time this means expanded facilities and leadership.

Every house needs strong foundations. This Diocese of Pennsylvania certainly has deep and venerable foundations. Sometimes we find in such cases that a house needs shoring up, a steel beam or crosstie, perhaps a new plumbing and heating system, perhaps a new electrical system.

Our diocesan headquarters, what we fondly call "Church House" have for the past fifteen years or so been as it were dwellers in tents, although increasingly expensive ones. I think it is time to make a definite decision about that. We are addressing that at this time. Whatever is finally decided will doubtless not please everyone, but we will, I hope, settle down, and in a more agreeable place.

I am asking for a Suffragan Bishop. I enjoy this work, but I am stretched rather thin. We need more episcopal help. We also need better communications. And many have warmed to the idea of our own conference center, for retreats, conferences, perhaps even camps.

All of this—congregational development, the ministries of compassion, new instruments of unity—will require enthusiasm, energy, and money. A fund drive is a part of the recommendations. Without funds it is all little more than pious hope.

But I believe that this is the venture in faith to which God is calling this household of God at this time. We are no longer strangers. We are fellow citizens, with one another and with the saints. We are a part of the household of God. We are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets. Christ Jesus himself is the cornerstone. WE can do it. Let the household look forward in the Spirit of Christ.

APPENDIX 11: REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AGING (RE-1)

The Committee on Aging, a member of the National Episcopal Society for Ministry on Aging (ESMA), is part of the national network of province coordinators and diocesan designees who implement ESMA's goals and objectives--developing ministries with and on behalf of older persons.

The Committee has held regular monthly meetings and continues its attempts to cover the wide spectrum of aging interests.

In the area of program the Committee urges every parish to have its own Committee on Aging. Presentations have been made to parishes outlining possible local programs of worship, advocacy, and socials. The National Age-in-Action resource calendar has been made available, and the Age-in-Action poster contest promoted. A resolution calling for an Age-in-Action Sunday is being prepared, and an annual award to an older adult making an outstanding contribution to the Diocese is being developed.

In the area of advocacy the Committee has drawn attention, through the clergy mailing, to the Catastrophic Care Bill before Congress, urging people to be aware of what the bill does not cover. A Committee member met with Senator Claud Pepper on this topic and also addressed the Diocesan Social Concerns Committee in May. Committee members have close ties with the issues of caregiving, Alzheimer's Disease, housing, homecare, elderly abuse, the Dolphins, and CARIE (Coalition of Advocates for the Rights of the Infirm Elderly).

Committee members represented the Diocese at the "Under One Roof" Conference in St. Louis and "Using the Congregation as a Source for the Empowerment of Older Persons," sponsored by ESMA and the Cathedral College of the Laity. For the fifth year we were represented at the Annual Province 3 ESMA Meeting at the College of Preachers.

APPENDIX 12: REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AIDS (RE-2)

The Committee on AIDS, established by the Bishops at the request of the Committee on Social Concerns and Diocesan Council, met for the first time in May, 1986, taking as its mandate the enabling resolution of Council out of which the Bishops acted.

That resolution suggests that there are a number of AIDS—related matters which require the urgent attention of the Church. Among them are, chiefly, to educate the people of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania about AIDS and its prevention; to act in supportive ways in taking care of people ill with HIV infections; to speak a clear and compassionate pastoral work to everyone affected by AIDS in the Diocese; to monitor and when appropriate speak as advocates for people with AIDS and others who are HIV-infected in areas in which these people are objects of discrimination and violence against homosexual persons who because of AIDS are increasingly the objects of such behavior, and when necessary to act as advocates for these people both in the Church and in society at large.

To meet these mandates, the Committee divided into working groups, each with particular tasks: education and training; public policy; discrimination. The pastoral response became a shared responsibility with Episcopal Community Services, represented on the Committee.

In the ensuing year, the Committee has carried out its responsibilities by:

--sponsoring, with ECS, a Conference on AIDS in November, 1986. About 200 people attended the Conference, keynoted by Dr. Matilda Krim and the Rt. Rev. William Swing.
--speaking to the Deans' Conference about AIDS and planning with them a Diocesan-wide AIDS network, the goal of which is to have persons in every parish who can serve as resource people about AIDS.
--subsequently meeting with each Deanery Clericus to talk about AIDS.
--developing a video-tape for use at deanery and parish coloquia, which highlights John L. Truner, M.D., a local AIDS expert and an Episcopalian, talking about medical aspects of AIDS with members of the Committee.
--striving to do education in the Black and Hispanic communities of the Diocese by working with UBE and other clergy and lay leadership.
--conducting a survey of all nursing home facilities in the Delaware Valley to determine their availability for people with AIDS, their willingness to be so available, and then facilitating staff training for 6 nursing homes identified as interested in participating in the project.
--facilitating the procurement of liability insurance for residences for people with AIDS in the Delaware Valley.
--speaking to several parish groups about AIDS.

--developing and making available a resource list for AIDS in the Diocese, and constructing a small resource library of written and video materials at the Diocesan Resource Center for use in the Diocese.
--being an active participant in national Episcopal Church efforts to develop a response to AIDS: attending a national AIDS conference called by the Presiding Bishop, being a member of the National Church Hope-Help Center, supporting the Presiding Bishop's call for a national Day of Prayer about AIDS, making available national church resources to local parishes in this connection, and beginning to build a Province-wide network of Diocesan AIDS committees.
--creating a separate sub-committee to monitor discriminatory developments, and urging the Committee on Social Concerns to establish a separate Diocesan committee to monitor compliance with the call of the Episcopal Church for "full civil rights" for homosexual persons, as these rights are more and more abused and abridged.

In all, the Committee has been busy and productive. Its plans for the Fall include a second conference on AIDS co-sponsored by Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese, the Bishop's Committee on Youth Ministry, and Episcopal Community Services, a second national Day of Prayer about AIDS, many more speaking engagements in parishes, continuing the creation of the parish resource network about AIDS, and the continued relationships established with provincial and national efforts. All of this goes on against a health and human crisis of enormous magnitude. The Committee welcomes the help of new volunteers in all of its work.

APPENDIX 13: REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ALCOHOL, ALCOHOL ABUSE, AND ALCOHOLISM (the 4-A Committee) (RE-3)

Alcoholism is a chronic, progressive, and fatal illness. The illness accounts for scores of fatal traffic accidents a day across the country and untold misery for millions of people, those addicted and those living with them. As a committee of the Diocese we seek to bring some light to this dark and troubling disease.

Two major efforts since last convention included the presentation of a major conference on the spiritual aspects of recovery and a focus on the definition of our committee including long range planning. On January 13, 1987, at The Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital, 100 clergy, lay professionals and others gained insight into how to strengthen the recovery process in presentations by Mr. Earnie Larsen, noted author, lecturer, and addictions consultant. Later in the year our focus was on how we can continue to help ministers, lay and ordained, to minister to addicted persons and their families. We now have a list of goals and objectives and key projects that will occupy us into the next century!

On Tuesday, January 12, 1988, at the Institute of Pennsylvania Hospital, The Rev. Stephen P. Apthorp will be the presentor at our next conference. He is an Episcopal priest and author of the recent book, Alcohol and Substance Abuse, a clergy handbook, published by Morehouse-Barlow. Watch for futher details and registration forms for this conference.

Our continuing effort will involve us in getting current information about addiction and recovery into your hands in an interesting and informative manner. We are also ready to address more than just issues about alcohol use and abuse. To reflect this new emphasis we are working toward changing our name to the Diocesan Addiction and Recovery Committee, to include emphasis on addiction and recovery from all addictive chemicals.

This year, Sunday, November 22, has been designated as "Alcohol Awareness Sunday." Clergy should have packets with means for raising the issue of drug abuse in a helpful way in your parishes. If not, they may get them from this committee or from Church House. We need you to help us with the message that alcoholism and other addictions can be arrested; and people, by the grace of God, can live again, and that the lives of those around the addicted person can also be resurrected. Our committee in addition works quietly and confidentially to bring hope and healing to anyone suffering directly or indirectly from drug abuse and addiction. For further information and to express an interest in working on our committee, please see one of us at the booth at the Diocesan Convention.

APPENDIX 14: REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S REVOLVING LOAN FUND (RE-4)

The Bishop's Revolving Loan Fund Committee is authorized to make loans for repairs and capital improvements as the Committee deems appropriate. The Fund is not limited to maintenance and repair of church buildings. Bishop Bartlett and the Committee welcome innovative use of the assets that make up the Fund. The interest rate charged by the Fund is usually set at 2 points below the commercial prime rate. The maximum loan available is $40,000. The loan is repayable in full in monthly installments over 5 years or less.

A specific category of loan has been identified for energy conservation. Loans will be available for improving insulation of Church buildings at one half of prime rate up to $4,000 to be repaid in two and one half years.

APPENDIX 15: REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION (RE-5)

The Church Foundation is a non-profit service organization for the Diocese of Pennsylvania. It is the designated trustee of funds and real estate for the Diocese. The Foundation's main responsibility is managing the Consolidated Fund, a common trust fund representing investments of over 300 church funds.

As of June 5, 1987, the Fund's market value was nearly $52 million, a 12% increase over the previous 12 months. The unit value rose from $40.95 to $45.88, again a gain of 12%. Including income, the "total return" was just over 17%.

For the remainder of fiscal 1987, the outlook is favorable. It's expected that income per unit will continue to increase moderately, although not to the extent of the past several years.

APPENDIX 16: REPORT OF THE TASK FORCE ON CHURCH AND THE HANDICAPPED (RE-6)

The Diocesan Task Force on Church and the Handicapped was re-established one year ago by Bishop Ogilby. This group was charged with the responsibility of encouraging all parishes to join together in affirming our belief that the Body of Christ will not be complete until all persons are incorporated into it and that by working together we can break down the barriers of architecture, attitude and communication.

Last Fall, Church Check Lists for Accessibility were distributed to each congregation in the Diocese through the 12 Deans. After lists were returned and collated, accessible churches have been identified in the Diocesan Directory.

Members of the Task Force reviewed a slide presentation, "A Matter of Choice", from the Episcopal Awareness Center for the Handicapped (EACH). This fine film was developed with a grant from the Episcopal Church's Coalition for Human Need and was co-authored by a disabled person. A copy was purchased, and is now available for use in the Diocese.

Worthwhile resources have been gathered for every ministry needed concerning handicapped persons. Many of these books, materials and audio-visual aids are housed in the Christian Education Center. A long resource list, provided by the National Church, is also available at the Center, and from the Task Force.

Helpful suggestions have been included in the Diocesan mailings. As an example - the Task Force distributed a list of 'gifts' which a parish could provide for their handicapped persons at no cost money-wise.

At this writing, a workshop on attitude toward the mentally retarded is being organized for October, 1987 in cooperation with the Philadelphia Presbytery. A questionnaire was sent to every parish in the Diocese last May, which was designed to be a helpful gathering of information for the planning process of a workshop of this kind.

The Task Force members are always available to be of help. Don't hesitate to call with questions:

APPENDIX 17: REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES (RE-7) AND PENSIONS

A review of the Commission's work this year follows:

PENSIONS

Reviewed clergy compensation and parish payments to Church Pension Fund to insure payments are current and correct. Where necessary paid arrearages to maintain clergy pension status.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE (other than pension)

Reviewed applications for funds from clergy in economic difficulty due to illness, relocation, etc. Offered assistance when deemed appropriate in the amount and over the time that seemed reasonable. Developed a policy outlining eligibility requirements for financial assistance and application procedure. These will be sent to all clergy.

POSITION GRADE LEVEL AND CLERGY SALARY REVIEW

Each parish has a grade level for clergy compensation based on certain indices. Convention has mandated that all clergy be paid a salary at or above the minimum for the grade level. Levels were reviewed against the indices to note any changes, then salaries were reviewed to insure they were above the minimum. Where not, the Commission discussed the situation with the vestry and clergy to arrive at a suitable solution.

SABBATICALS

This subject is under study. No definitive resolution will be ready for this year's convention.

SHORT TERM DISABILITY INCOME INSURANCE

Studied various company policies. Decided on Church Life Insurance Company policy. Sent information regarding the plan to all clergy and wardens for whatever action they wished to take.

COMMUNICATION

Commencing a program outlining to vestries existing compensation requirements. In addition, stressing the responsibility of vestries to fairly compensate their clergy by moving the salary through the grade level. The Commission will offer to help vestries establish procedures to accomplish this end and will monitor progress.

CANON REVISION

The role of the Commission and its activities has been updated. Information will be forwarded to the Diocesan Committee on Canons so the canons may be updated.

RESOLUTIONS

The Commission will submit the following resolutions to Convention:

Salaries - increase based on cost of living increase through July.

Housing - a minimum monthly amount of $600., or 30% of salary is insufficient to pay for appropriate housing.

Auto Allowance - adding a paragraph to previous years' resolutions suggesting parish supply clergy with an automobile rather than an allowance which is often not sufficient to cover expenses, particularly in high insurance rate areas.

Assessment - for the Clergy Financial Assistance Fund. A figure has not been set but the same as last year seems likely ($40,000.).

CONCLUSION

It is a pleasure to be Vice-Chair of the Commission. The members are dedicated to the welfare of the clergy in this diocese. There is much work ahead of us. We will continue to use talented clergy and lay personnel outside the Commission on our subcommittees to augment our resources and expedite our studies. This procedure has worked well. We expect the Convention to continue to elect people to the Commission who have the capability, interest and time so that it can continue doing its important work.

P. Bruce Ferguson
Vice-Chair

APPENDIX 18: REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN COALITION FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY (RE-8)

The Diocesan Coalition for Mission and Ministry includes all of the missions and aided congregations of the Diocese. An annual evaluation of the congregations receiving grants through the diocesan budget is carried out in the summer months by the Allocations Committee. The 1987 Allocations Committee met for approximately 25 hours. It travelled to Kensington, West and South Philadelphia to see first hand the work of our members. The Committee was cheered and impressed by the vital ministries it discovered and the enthusiasm, loyalty and faithfulness of the members of each congregation is reason for celebration and rejoicing.

While it does not need to be said, Sunday morning is at the center of our ministries. Liturgies are said and sung in Spanish, English and in sign language. Lay participation in worship is high. Most of the congregations have Sunday Schools. Several commented on difficulties related to Sunday School, particularly in getting qualified teachers, but these problems are not unique to members of the Coalition.

In addition to Sunday morning, other themes evolved during our meetings. Education, particularly Bible Study, is an important aspect of the weekly life of many congregations. Each reported a unique method of study, but a chorus stating the importance of Bible Study in the life of the parish was sounded. One Rector reported his lenten Bible Study was still going strong in July. Anglican History and tradition was also mentioned as an area for study and discussion.

A second theme of our meetings was Outreach. A list of the ministries of our member congregations is ample testimony: food cupboards, thrift shops, GED programs, shelter for the homeless, AA groups, Women Against Abuse, parish schools, summer day camps, youth programs, credit unions, housing programs, athletic leagues. The faith and hope these ministries represent in the neighborhoods where they occur cannot be overestimated.

A third theme involved an orientation toward the future. Several congregations reported working on mission statements as a valuable tool for present and future ministries. Parishes spoke of reaching people in the neighborhood more effectively in the future. Evangelism and stewardship programs were being developed to further local ministries. Programs to strengthen and encourage the ministry of the laity were also mentioned as future areas for work.

Meeting with parish representatives reminded the committee of the richness of our membership. Many of our congregations are over a century old, but we have a thirty year old, an eight year old, a two year old, and a year old. Many of us serve in the city, but we are not without suburban brothers and sisters. One of us is a very special group from the entire diocese, several of our congregations are the children of mergers.

Several new ministries were celebrated in the past year. Holy Nativity, Wrightstown, is constructing a new building. Bainbridge House, a ministry of St. Mary's Philadelphia, was dedicated in September, 1986. St. Barnabas, Kensington, began an Hispanic ministry. The Rev. Carlos Santos became Vicar of Christ Church and St. Ambrose in August, 1986, and the ministry is being enhanced and expanded.

The DCMM is pleased to make this report to the Diocese. DCMM is indeed a Coalition of Missions and Aided Parishes in the Diocese of Pennsylvania serving their communities with the Good News of Jesus Christ. People are served in His Name. Life is abundant where many expect to find only death. Hope is shared where those without vision see only despair. The financial resources are not adequate for the ministry being done or that needs to be done. However, our principle resource, God's love and care, expressed in our commitment to one another, is beyond measure. And faith tells us, We Shall Overcome, and be victorious in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Rev. John Midwood, Vice Chairman, DCMM

The Rev. Franklin D. Turner, Chairman, DCMM

APPENDIX 19: REPORT OF THE ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH COMMISSION (RE-9)

The Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, through its Diocesan Ecumenical Commission, has recruited one hundred parish ecumenical representatives (PER'S) from one hundred and seventy parishes.

An exciting half-day assembly was sponsored by the Commission on Saturday, January 17, in The Church of The Saviour, 37th and Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of The Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral.

The title was call "The CLQ Revisited: Renewing a Bold Vision". Not only was the assembly to celebrate the hundredth anniversary but also to promote action for specific local unity.

The Rev. Vincent O. Eareckson, a member of the Diocesan Ecumenical Commission, made the keynote presentation on "The Bold Vision of the CLQ: Marching Orders For Today".

After the address there was held a panel reaction made up of representatives of the United Church of Christ, Lutheran, Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches.

Two sessions were devoted to "Case History Presentation". At the First Case History Presentation, representatives of the Reformation United Church of Christ of Fairless Hills, Pennsylvania and The First Christian Church of Lower Bucks County detailed their inauguration on November 23, 1986 of their union at the two congregations into The United Christian Church, Levittown.

During the Second Case History Presentation, Chaplain Walter Wagner of Muhlenberg College, Allentown, presented the "Covenant Relationship" of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Bethlehem Synod of The Lutheran Church of America.

Episcopal Chaplain Elizabeth Eisenstadt whose office is in The Church of The Saviour and whose job description includes an ecumenical ministry to the students of The University of Pennsylvania, spoke of the ecumenical efforts of the Roman Catholic Chaplain and students of The Newman House in raising $3000 to maintain her ministry on the campus in the face of budget cuts which would have eliminated her ministry. It was a stirring example of what is being done without fanfare in the ecumenical area.

LARCO

Sometime ago twelve priests of the Valley Forge Deanery of The Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania invited, as their personal guests, twelve Roman Catholic priests from the respective local parishes to join them for luncheon at The Lakeside Restaurant on Route 422 in Limerick.

From that initial meeting, it was determined to meet again for study of The Final Report.

Thus evolved monthly meetings in which the clergy of both disciplines move about to each other's church.

The group has been increased to include Lutherans, Anglicans, Roman Catholics and Orthodox (thus LARCO).

At present the group is studying in depth the Lima document, Baptism, Eucharist and Ministry.

At the November meeting a presentation on Ministry was made by the Orthodox Priest, Fr. Jason Kappanadze. It was substantially what had appeared in St. Vladimir's Quarterly.

In January a presentation on "Ministry" was given from the Lutheran perspective by The Rev. Warren Weleck, Pastor of Transfiguration Lutheran Church, Pottstown.

The November meeting was held in the home of a Pottstown woman of Greek ethnic background. She prepared a Greek gourmet luncheon for the group in keeping with its Orthodox emphasis.

LOCAL ECUMENISM

The Rev. Frank M. Harmon of St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley writes that during Epiphany a special ecumenical emphasis was made under the title, "One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church".

The speakers included The Rev. Dr. John Shetler of The United Church of Christ and retired Conference Minister; The Rev. Timothy Lull of the Mt. Airy Lutheran Theological Seminary and The Rev. Dr. Gerard Sloyan, Roman Catholic professor in the Department of Religion at Temple University. Fr. Jason Kappanadze of the Orthodox Church of America had to cancel at the last minute because of his new appointment in Cleveland, Ohio.

On the First Sunday of Epiphany, being the Patronal Festival of St. Peter's, January 18, the Parish used the Lima Liturgy. This was repeated on the Last Sunday of Epiphany. The music was drawn from the Taize settings.

A very positive response was reported on the part of the congregation. The people felt they learned a lot about themselves. The BEM document was studied on the first Sunday and last two Sundays of Epiphany.

At The Episcopal Church of the Holy Nativity, The Rev. Glenn M. Matis reported on the participation of the Parish in ecumenical and interfaith service held in conjuction with Penns Park United Methodist Church. Pastor James Todd of Penns Park and Fr. Matic feel -- "these services have brought the two congregations closer".

The Northampton/Wrightstown Ministerium sponsored a Holocaust Service held in Ohev Shalom Synagogue in Richboro. Fr. Matis served on the Planning Committee and composed the opening prayer.

It was the first time for an interfaith service for victims of the Holocaust. A combined choir of members of the synagogue and churches sang the "Song of the Partisans", which was sung by the Jews who escaped the ghettos and camps to fight with the non-Jewish resistance forces in the forest. A candle was lighted in honor of those courageous Gentiles who risked their lives to save thousands of Jews during the Holocaust. Rabbi Perlstein remarked . . . "The interfaith service means so much. The whole idea of people of different religions and races sitting down together in a house of God is the total antithesis of the inhumane climate that permitted the Holocaust in the first place."

"Showa" was shown in Pottstown at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, sponsored by the Pottstown Clergy Association on The First Sunday of Easter in honor of the Holocaust.

The Ecumenical Bulletin has been sent to all active parish clergy during the past year. It is hoped that during the next year the Bulletin will be sent to the Parish Ecumenical Officers.

Twenty ecumenical guests including John Cardinal Krol were present at the Eucharist celebrating the retirement of The Right Reverend Lyman C. Ogilgy and the Investiture of The Right Reverend Allan L. Bartlett, Jr. as the 14th Bishop of Pennsylvania, held in The Church of the Saviour on Monday, February 2, 1987, being the Feast of the Purification.

The purpose of the Diocesan Ecumenical Commission is to serve as a bridge between the Diocese and other religious bodies; to communicate Ecumenism within the Diocese, and to set up structures to carry out this communication.

APPENDIX 20: REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN (RE-10)

Carrying out our ministry along the lines of Worship, Mission, Advocacy and Fellowship provided a rewarding as well as stimulating experience.

The Worship Program entailed: Retreats, Quiet Days (including one for the Board), Workshops on Prayer and Spiritual Direction, Bible Reading Fellowship, Conferences on Ministry, Evangelism, Mission, the Hungry and Homeless, World Peace, Aids victims---(all under the heading of Prayer and Worship and the Action that flows from it).

Our Mission Outreach was the disbursement of income from legacies and parish donations in the following categories: Domestic-Philadelphia Episcopal Community Service, Voyage House, Delaware Valley and St. Timothy's Mission in Appalachia. Foreign-Holy Trinity School and St. Vincent's School for Handicapped Children in Haiti. Black Schools and Colleges-Vorhees College, So. Carolina. Indian Hope-The Episcopal Church in Navajoland, New Mexico. The Mission Department also sponsored programs with Mrs. Shirline Daskerville, an alumna of St. Paul's College, Virginia and Mrs. Ruth Smith, a former teacher at Vellore Christian Medical College, India.

World Service sponsored a Fellowship Day in every Deanery with guest speakers from recipient agencies of World Service Clothing. The Fall and Spring clothing drives garnered over 5,000 articles of new clothing which were sent to needy neighborhood agencies as well as to St. Timothy's Mission in Kentucky. The monies that were donated were sent to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief. On Blanket Sunday, money was collected enabling Church World Service to purchase 1,484 blankets for victims of natural and man-made disasters worldwide.

United Thank Offering participation continues strong. In our Diocese two projects received U.T.O. grants this year. Community Housing Service of Lansdale, Montgomery County and P.A.T.C.H., (Parishes Acting Together Can Help) of Episcopal Community Services, a project headquartered in North Philadelphia. The Diocesan U.T.O. has initiated a two-tiered process for project selections for U.T.O. grant applications. From September to early January, applicants submit preliminary requests, following specific U.T.O. grant guidelines. These pertinent instructions are circulated in September through the Deans. Through mid February the grants committee narrows the list to three finalists - who then submit formal applications to the Bishop for National U.T.O. review.

There were six recipients of Lea Hill Scholarships this year.

The Department of Diocesan Ministries is continuing its study of the incarcerated parent - and the affect on their family. The committee visited Muncy State Correctional Institute and observed first-hand their project IMPACT, (Inside Muncy-Parents and Children Together). Their goal is that their study will bring about an awareness of the issue and thereby affect a change to up-grade the quality of life for the children who are the innocent victims of their parent's incarceration.

The committee continues to work with Episcopal Community Services to further this goal.

Children Bearing Children continues to be an on-going project of the Episcopal Church Women. The Lay Ministries Committee has promoted the use of The Postponing Sexual Involvement (How to Say "No"). They have shared materials and concerns with the nursing students at La Salle University, the men of the Church Empowerment Program, the office of Development at Episcopal Hospital, the Pastoral Program at Misericordia Hospital and the Churches and Schools of the Holmesburg area. The Committee has worked with the Adolescent Child Watch Study and has been a part of Youth Services Resource Day.

Four Board meetings of the Diocesan E.C.W. were held in Deaneries throughout the Diocese. In this way, parish ECW's had an opportunity to see the Board at work, to ask questions and to share thoughts and concerns with its members.

President

APPENDIX 22: REPORT OF EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES (RE-12)

For 117 years Episcopal Community Services has ministered to the poor, the suffering and the needy within the Diocese of Pennsylvania. As the official health and human services arm of the Diocese, the agency has acted on behalf of the Episcopal Church and all Episcopalians within the diocese in carrying out its mission.

As the Executive Director, I have often been asked about the significance of ECS being a church agency and what difference our church connection makes. I want to share with you some reflections on this important question.

1) ECS is historically rooted in the Diocese of Pennsylvania

It has been said that one cannot chart a course for the future without understanding one's past. ECS's past is bound up with the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. Founded by Bishop William Bacon Stevens, ECS has been governed and overseen by Episcopal lay persons and clergy from its beginning. Diocesan Canons define ECS's special relationship to the diocese and provide for direct structural accountability through election of its Board members by the Bishop and Standing Committee. The Bishop of the Diocese serves, ex-officio, as Chairman of ECS's board. At every point in ECS's history, the agency is inextricably bound up with the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

2) ECS is theologically rooted in the Gospel of Christ

As Christians we believe in a loving and just God, who was incarnate in Jesus and now, through the power of the Holy Spirit, is at work in the world proclaiming and establishing God's love and justice for all people. The ministry of ECS - its programs, its services - spring directly from this theological soil. The motivation and impetus for ECS's work, whether from board members who oversee it or loyal church people who support it, is a belief that we are called to this ministry of service in the name of Christ.

3) ECS is strengthened by a large and committed constituency

ECS's historic and theological roots provide a large and natural constituency which is a powerful resource to strengthen the agency's ministry. The extended family of which ECS is a part - namely, the Bishop and his staff, the 70,000 Episcopalians, the 400 clergy and the 171 congregations - this wider family provides an unusual resource unique to a church agency and not available to most other social agencies.

Largely from that resource have come the 450 volunteers who work directly in ECS's programs and committees, the more than three thousand contributors who provide needed and generous financial support, and the hundreds of clergy and growing numbers of parish congregations who share a ministry with ECS as we jointly respond to local community needs. Through this wider network ECS joins with diocesan, parish and other allies to advocate for needed community change and legislative redress. Finally, ECS has the power of prayer - the prayers of people and congregations throughout the diocese who daily hold up the clients and work with ECS to the presence of God.

4) As a church agency, ECS ministers to the whole person

The mission of ECS is to meet the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of people. We are free to see people in their wholeness, as physical, emotional and spiritual beings, as well as people living in the context of family, church neighborhood and community. Often the fact of ECS's being a church agency provides an environment in which clients can legitimately raise spiritual issues as they impact on their lives.

ECS's growing partnership with parishes provides a natural context in which people and programs can be responded to in a wholistic way. Such partnerships also provide a natural sharing of roles between ECS staff persons and parish priests and congregations.

I invite every individual and family to join with Episcopal Community Services to minister in the name of Christ to those in need. "Inasmuch as you have done it to the least of these my brethren, you have done it to me."

The Rev. Gilbert S. Avery, III
Executive Director

APPENDIX 23: REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL CHAPLAINCY (RE-13) SERVICE

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the consecration of the chapel at Episcopal Hospital. Over those years the Chapel has stood as a constant testimony to the Church's ministry among those who are sick, those who are suffering, those who are in pain. It has watched over the joy of birth, the miracle of healing, and the peace that comes with death.

Through its Chaplaincy Service, Episcopal Hospital continues to provide for the spiritual, sacramental and pastoral needs of its patients and staff in ever-changing situations. The diseases may have new forms and names, the abilities and techniques of medicine definitely have advanced, but the needs of those who are suffering, those who are in pain, of those who love them, and of those who minister to their needs are as intensive as ever. The reassurance that Christ is still present, even in the midst of the darkest nights of one's pilgrimage, is a witness that has not and must not be forgotten nor neglected.

In an attempt to meet those needs, the Chaplaincy Service is available to all patients, families, and staff on a 24 hour a day, 7 days per week basis. This ongoing service is provided by a network of community clergy and trained lay volunteers, headed by the Chaplain, who sees this particular ministry as a part of their calling. All patients are visited, counseled and consoled, and remembered daily in prayer.

Weekly Chapel services are held led by community clergy and hospital staff. Sunday services will once again be initiated starting in September.

This Service is made possible through the generous contribution of congregations and individuals from throughout the Diocese. Additionally, new medical equipment has been made available through the work of the Elizabeth Price Martin League, as well as through the efforts of individual Episcopal Church Women groups. For this, we are profoundly grateful. The ministry of our Church at Episcopal Hospital is your ministry, and we thank you for not only your financial support but for your prayers.

This year also marked the retirement of the Reverend Benjamin Axleroad who over the past twenty-two years has served as Chaplain, We thank him for his dedicated and committed service to all those who were placed in his care. We also look forward to the ministry of the Reverend Carl E. Metzger, who has just begun his term as our Chaplain, and rest assured that as we face new days with new challenges, the Church's ministry will remain ever faithful here, in this place.

The Rev. Carl E. Metzger
Chaplain

APPENDIX 24: REPORT OF THE LITURGY COMMITTEE (RE-14)

In the past year the Commission has planned, organized and supervised the following Diocesan liturgies:

1. The Eucharist at Diocesan Convention
2. All of the liturgies for the Bishop Clergy Conference at Hershey.
3. The celebration of the ministries of Bishops Ogilby and Bartlett at the Church of the Saviour on February 2.
4. The Clergy day with the Bishop at St. Mary's at the Cathedral during Holy Week.
5. The Ordination of Deacons at Episcopal Academy on June 20.

The Commission has also supervised the training of lay eucharistic ministers at several parishes throughout the Diocese. It has presented a report on liturgy and the use of space in churches to Diocesan Council and has consulted with several parishes on liturgical matters. It has issued copies of the propers for additions to Lesser Feasts and Fasts approved by the last General Convention. Throughout this year, the Commission has worked steadily on inclusive language in the liturgy and hopes to issue a report with recommendations in the coming year. It is also working with the Music Committee in planning a workshop to be held next January.

The Rev. Edward B. Gammons, Jr.
Chairman

APPENDIX 25: REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON MINISTRY IN HIGHER EDUCATION (RE-15)

This Commission is responsible to the Convention and Council for the proper administration of a budget of $57,950 in 1987, and has requested $63,500 for 1988. The largest single item in the Budget is the allocation to United Ministries in Higher Education of the State of Pennsylvania, which is supported by the "main line" denominations and the several other Episcopal Dioceses in Pennsylvania. U.M.H.E. maintains and evaluates chaplaincies on many state and private college campuses around the state; we have a special interest in the ministries at Temple, where the Rev. David M. Gracie is the Chaplain, and at Cheyney, which historically has had an Episcopal Clergyperson, but is presently vacant after an excellent ministry by a Methodist, the Rev. Myra Bernadel. (An ecumenical campus committee is seeking a replacement.) We also allocated some funds to the Episcopal Committee at the University of Pennsylvania where the Rev. Elizabeth Eisenstadt conducted a chaplaincy which was exemplary. Unfortunately, and despite wide community support, that work could not be carried on under the present budget limitations, and Ms. Eisenstadt's salary ended June 30th, 1987. There are few clergy who could have won the sort of acceptance on campus that she won, and we are distressed, as a Commission, that the Diocese was unable to continue her position. The Episcopal Committee on the Penn campus is carrying on a ministry, as best it can, and Fr. John Scott is again doubling as Rector and Chaplain to Episcopal students, but it is a poor substitute for the work we had there when Elizabeth was on campus.

The Rev. Fr. Scott was largely responsible for sponsoring and publicizing a Conference on February 13-14, on University Ministries led by Robert T. Gribbon, of the Alban Institute, and held at the Christian Association Building, on campus. It was attended by thirty-six interested Episcopalians.

The Commission also tries to focus attention on "campus based college work", helping Rectors (and Assistants) in those parishes near campuses to share their experiences and wisdom with each other. We hope all Rectors calling Assistants for work in such parishes, and all Vestries calling Rectors, will be sensitive to the need for clergy who can and will reach out to students, and provide a ministry to them.

We don't feel that we are doing enough, and we think that the Diocese is not maintaining the level of college work it should maintain. We could well use three or four times our present budget. We try to use what little we are given in an intelligent and responsible way.

The Rev. Timothy Pickering
Chairman

APPENDIX 26: REPORT ON THE COMMITTEE ON MUSIC (RE-16)

The Committee on Music serves the Diocese by working closely with the Committee on Liturgy. Together the two committees make up the Commission on Worship, which in turn plans and carries out any and all liturgies for the Diocese. Three such services took place during 1986 - 1987: Diocesan Convention, the celebration on the retirement of Bishop Ogilby, and the Ordination of Deacons. For all three services members of the Music Committee helped plan and perform the music.

For both Diocesan Convention and the retirement service, choirs were organized from the entire Diocese to lead the music. Plans are in progress to build up a more representative and more defined "Diocesan Choir" to provide leadership for such services in the future.

In March, 1986, Brady Johnson was appointed Chairperson of the Music Committee by Bishop Ogilby. In August, 1986, Mr. Johnson resigned because he was moving away from the Diocese. Joan Gurniak was elected temporary Chairperson. In May, 1987, Thomas Whittemore was selected to become the new Chairperson.

In addition to serving as musicians for specific Diocesan services, the Music Committee serves as an educational group for the Diocese. Three workshops were held during the past year. The first was a Hymnal Workshop, September 13, led by Raymond Glover from the Church Hymnal Corporation. The workshop explored by Service Music of the Hymnal 1982. A Choir Training Day for Boys was held on October 11, led by Bruce Neswick, from St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo. The third workshop was a Choir Training Day for Adults on January 24. The leaders were the members of the Diocesan Music Committee and the training was specifically for the February 2 Retirement service.

Plans are in progress for a Choir Training Day for Girls on October 17, and a joint workshop with the Liturgy Committee on planning for the Easter Season, tentatively scheduled for January 30.

The members of the Music Committee for the past year have been: The Reverend William E. Arnold, III (Redeemer, Bryn Mawr), Anthony A. Ciucci (Church Farm School, Paoli), Charles Craig (St. Simon the Cyrenian), Courtland Dunn (Holy Trinity, West Chester),

The Music Committee expresses its appreciation to the staff of the Church of the Saviour, 38th and Chestnut Street. All meetings of the Committee have been held there for the past year.

Joan E. Gurniak
Acting Chair

APPENDIX 27: REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PEACEMAKING (RE-17)

The Committee has met monthly (excluding July and August). In addition to sponsoring a number of resolutions at Diocesan Convention and providing a display of related materials, the Committee has participated in the April mobilization in Washington, D.C., sponsored a Diocesan Conference on Sanctuary and met with Bishop William Davidson, who chairs the national Episcopal Peace Fellowship, to share our work and to gain a wider perspective on the state of peacemaking in the National Church.

After serving as Convenor for three years, the Rev. Herbert W. Stevens submitted his resignation, effective June 1st, and Bishop Bartlett appointed Mary Jane Baker to succeed him.

The Committee's main focus during the coming year will be to encourage the formation of Episcopal Peace Fellowship Chapters within the Diocese. There is a newly-formed chapter in Collegeville and plans are under way for two others - one in Bala-Cynwyd and one in Germantown. Sounds practical - to have a local peace community for strength, support, education and action.

Committee meetings are generally held on the first Monday of the month from 6 to 8 .P.M. The place of the meeting alternates between St. Peter's Church, Germantown and St. Asaph's Church, Bala-Cynwyd. Any interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Mary Jane Baker
Convenor

APPENDIX 29: REPORT OF THE COMMISSION FOR RACE RELATIONS (RE-19)

The Commission for Race Relations serves as a council of advice and support for the bishop on issues related to racism; it also serves as a support and assistance group for parishes in developing positive relationships with members of diverse ethnic groups.

This past year, members have spent considerable time in community building as we address this issue on a personal basis and have used consultants to help us to examine our own prejudices that we might be more knowledgeable and committed to breaking down racial barriers for ourselves and the people we interact with. Also during this year, we have been involved in support and advocacy in several areas:

-assisted Bishop Bartlett in the articulation of his Lenten Pastoral letter of concern on the issue of racism in the metropolitan area
-advised the Bishop in the need for minority representation on both diocesan staff and committees, especially in light of the growing Hispanic Ministry Committee and the Nominations and Elections Committee to support and advocate for better representation throughout the diocese
-developing a design for a program for a "Parish to Parish" experience to address racial diversity in a non-threatening, growth-producing manner. This program is now being designed and refined with the hope of a pilot project in early winter. Several parishes are in discussion with Committee members about participation.

The struggle in recognizing and clearly naming the sin of racism in our society is a constant one; the hope of creating a new world in Christ's words "love one another as I love you" is an invigorating one. The Commission welcomes new members and invites you to call any member for more information.

APPENDIX 30: REPORT OF THE REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT COMMITTEE (RE-20)

-- A Czechoslovakian teenager barred from a college education because his father is not a member of the Communist party.

-- A father of three jailed for his anti-Communist activities and not permitted to work after his release.

-- A young woman veterinarian persecuted for her religious beliefs.

-- A young Hungarian man fleeing for his life, leaving behind a wife and two small children.

Each month forty to fifty names are added to the list of refugees seeking help through the Presiding Bishop's Fund and local Episcopal churches. In 1975, in the aftermath of the war in Vietnam when hundreds of refugees were housed at Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania, the churches of our Diocese responded with compassion and willingness to the needs of these refugees at our doorstep.

Today's refugees are from Czechoslovakia, Romania, Poland, Hungary, Iran, Ethiopia, South Africa and Laos. They are waiting in camps and cannot leave until a sponsor volunteers to help with their resettlement.

The Diocesan Refugee Committee stands ready to assist individuals, churches or Deaneries with the selection, arrival and resettlement of a refugee family. The Diocese of Pennsylvania through its churches is presently assisting two Amerasian teenagers with their mothers and siblings (Conestoga Deanery), a reunited family of nine Vietnamese who required new housing (St. George's Ardmore), a homeless, medically needy Romanian refugee (the Committee), and is awaiting the arrival of a Polish Family momentarily (St. Mary's Wayne). We are delighted to welcome from Texas a concert violinist and cellist couple who fled from Romania in 1985 and moved to Philadelphia to join the Philadelphia Concerto Soloists (the Committee, performances at Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square).

With our help desperate persons can become self-supporting, free and contributing individuals. It is a wonderful experience of Christian love in which we give a lot but gain much more in return.

Won't you help? Please call the Diocesan Refugee Coordinator, Barbara Irving, 566-4851, or Dorothy Blanchard at Church House, 567-6650, for information.

Barbara Irving
Diocesan Refugee Coordinator

APPENDIX 31: REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE FOR RENEWAL, EVANGELIZATION AND CHURCH GROWTH (RE-21)

Since the 203rd Convention, this committee has engaged in a variety of fruitful activities. First of all, we assisted Bishop Bartlett in the search for the right person to fill the position on the bishop's staff in this program area. A search committee was formed. Candidates were sought and interviewed. Bishop Bartlett took this work into full consideration and appointed Jane Cosby to this position.

Secondly, our committee members have undergone training to be of extensive help to congregations in the diocese. Six members have been trained to help vestries and other parish leadership to develop an evangelism ministry which is right for your parish. Three members of the committee are prepared to help those parishes which have had renewal experience plan and carry out further outreach ministries.

Thirdly, teaching ministries sponsored by this committee have been made available to the entire diocese. A conference on the topic "Spiritual Gifts" featuring Dr. Eddie Gibbs from the Fuller Theological Seminary School of World Mission was held in January. A follow-up seminar on that subject featuring the Rev. David Jones, Archdeacon of Pittsburgh was held in May. Other seminars and conferences are planned for the future.

Finally, members of this committee are ready to serve you in any way possible. Anyone wishing to explore the possibilities for Renewal, Evangelization and Church Growth with a member of our committee may make arrangements through the office of Jane Cosby.

Chair

APPENDIX 32: REPORT OF ST. ANNA'S RESIDENCE FOR WOMEN (RE-22)

The All Saints Sisters from Catonsville, Maryland began the work at St. Anna's as an outreach. The Community has had a variety of works interwoven with the prayer life essential to a Religious Community.

St. Anna's Residence came into being in 1912, to serve Episcopal ladies who did not desire to maintain an apartment or home of their own. St. Anna's provided a gracious home atmosphere at the turn of the century.

Women of today require something different. They are more independent and have many more interests outside the home, so St. Anna's is now open to all ages and groups. Career women, retired women, students.

Our House is located in Center City Philadelphia, in the attractive Logan Square Neighborhood, with the Franklin Institute just across the street, and the Free Library across the Square.

St. Anna's is within walking distance of Wanamakers and other downtown stores, and is close to all major bus routes, giving one a choice of Churches as well as the opportunity for cultural pursuits.

With a capacity for 17, St. Anna's gives one a home--rather than an institutional environment. If that is what you are looking for, this could be the place for you.

Sister Ellen Elizabeth

APPENDIX 33: REPORT OF ST. MARGARET'S HOUSE (RE-23)

St. Margaret's House has served the diocese since 1939 as a retreat house and small conference enter. This lovely old stone house, erected in 1894, is located on the grounds of St. Luke's Church in the Germantown section of the city of Philadelphia. Easily accessible by public transportation and by automobile (parking is available), groups and individuals are welcome each year from after Labor Day until late June. Overnight accommodations are available for sixteen persons; the refectory and large meeting room comfortably seat twenty-four persons. The program of St. Margaret's House is under the direction of the SISTERS OF ST. MARGARET, a Religious Order for women in the Episcopal Church. Each fall and spring a schedule of retreats, quiet days, days of prayer, and special programs is publicized throughout the diocese. Men and women are welcome to participate in all these events. The Sisters of St. Margaret, whose Mother House is located in Boston, have ministered in the diocese of Pennsylvania since 1889 in various capacities. Today, besides the retreat ministry at St. Margaret's House, they serve in parishes and on a number of diocesan committees, and are available to congregations for special programs. Each summer during July the Sisters sponsor a Live-in program at the Order's summer convent in Duxbury, Massachusetts, which provides women interested in the religious life with an opportunity to experience at first-hand this particular Christian vocation. There is also a summer camp for girls in Duxbury.

All inquiries with regard to the use of the facilities of St. Margaret's House, Germantown, and its programs, as well as the life and ministry of the Sisters of St. Margaret, should be addressed to the Sister-in-Charge, St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19144; telephone (215) 844-9410.

APPENDIX 34: REPORT OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE (RE-24)

In a former bank building at the corner of Third and Arch Streets, the Seamen's Church Institute of Philadelphia continues a ministry informed by the Anglican tradition since the early 1800's. Although no longer organizationally or financially directly related to our great Diocese of Pennsylvania, the historical relationship remains strong and warm.

As in years past, it is impossible to spend even one evening at the Seamen's Church Institute in 1987 without having Jesus' words in Matthew 25 echo in your ears..." I was a stranger and you welcomed me."

In the past year 15,547 strangers "within our gates" came through the doors of 249 Arch Street. They came from seventy countries. Most had not a single acquaintance in Philadelphia. Many spoke hardly a word of English. A very large proportion of them came from Asia and Third World Countries. Most of those who came had arrived in the Ports of Philadelphia that day. Many of them would be gone the next day.

In a few brief hours staff and volunteers at the Seamen's Church Institute would have reached out in Christ's name to meet the needs of these seafarers who lead lonely, dangerous and often exploited lives. Their needs may have been as simple as finding an opportunity to meet someone other than crew members who have been their day-in-day-out companions for months at sea...or as complex as seeking asylum in the United States ...or have been abandoned without pay and needing to find some way to return to their native country.

There is almost no need known to humankind that has not surfaced at the SCI at some time...and virtually none that went unmet.

Within a few short weeks this past winter, these situations arose in rapid fire order:

- The Coast Guard requested someone from SCI go down to a Greek vessel in Wilmington where there was a supposed mutiny.

- A U.S. seaman, retired because of a serious shipboard accident three years ago and who since has been trying to support his family on public assistance and food stamps (and a few SCI emergency loans), received a $124,000 settlement. He requested SCI's help in investing and managing it.

- A Filipino seaman, "beached and out of work," wrote to ask advice on how to feed his wife, two children, three siblings and a dying father when there is no work and the rains have ruined his 50' x 50' farm, killed his three chickens, and blown down the paper hut they all live in.

- A 17 year old trainee Indian Radio Officer, hired twelve months ago with the contractural understanding that after six months of training as a radio officer, he would have his salary raised and be made a "regular," complained to Father Secor that not only had he not received the promised raise, but, in fact, his salary has been reduced. Could SCI help?

- A working, but alcoholic and very drunk, U.S. seaman came in one night begging to be sent to the St. Christopher Inn Alcohol Rehabilitation Center in Garrison, NY.

When any problem is beyond SCI's ability to handle it alone, the Institute's close working relationship with the Coast Guard, Immigration and seafarer agencies around the globe brings together a combination of services that can usually cut through any complexity.

Eugene, captain of a Romanian vessel, anguished over the political situation in his home land and seeking asylum in the U.S., knows firsthand how this works. Today, nearly a year after he first set foot on U.S. soil, Eugene is safely and gainfully employed in Florida. During several weeks in Philadelphia, every single member of SCI's staff was in some manner directly related to assisting Eugene. The Diocese's Refugee Settlement Group was involved: so, too, were the Jewish Welfare and Episcopal Community Services people. Parish groups and parish priests lent a hand. Dozens of SCI volunteers were intimately involved with helping Eugene. One SCI Board member contributed $500 toward Eugene's support, and another was invaluable in helping cut through political red tape.

During the bitter weather of this past winter, one ship captain simply walked away from his vessel, abandoning both the crew and unseaworthy ship with no cargo, no heat, no food, and no money. SCI had another dilemma to help unscramble. Some crew members simply disappeared. Three Guyanans turned to SCI for help. A battery of attorneys and ships agents, the U.S. Coast Guard, port officials in Wilmington, a bank in Rotterdam and the Seafarers Rights Center in New York City all pulled together with SCI/Philadelphia. After two weeks of untold cooperative efforts, the three abandoned seafarers were on their way home to Guyana with assurance of payment of wages owed.

On the scene at 249 Arch Street, who makes all this possible?

...An extremely dedicated, tiny staff. This includes ships visitors, who literally cover the waterfront every day, boarding every vessel coming into the Ports of Philadelphia on both sides of the river. It is they who are SCI's first line in taking our services to seafarers.

...It is cooperative relationships with other denominations. For example, since the early months of 1987, Young-Hwan Kim, a Korean Southern Baptist pastor, came to SCI as a volunteer. On May 1, he joined the staff, supported in part with funds from the Southern Baptist Church. Pastor Kim serves as Associate Chaplain, responsible for a special two year Korean seamen's project. In his present capacity, he serves as a ships visitor, relating to seafarers of all cultures.

...It is volunteers who assist regularly at SCI, without whose help the ministry would be severely limited. In January 1987, SCI honored twelve volunteers and sixteen dance hostesses on Volunteers Recognition Night.

...It is members of an independent, interfaith, volunteer Board of Managers, many of whom are members of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. Bishop Bartlett is Honorary Chairman, and in his first year has demonstrated a lively interest. The Very Rev. Louis H. Temme and The Rev. Franklin D. Turner are Honorary Vice President, and they, too, have spent time at SCI becoming fully acquainted.

...It is supporters throughout the Delaware Valley - foundations, corporations, churches and individuals - who give regularly. During 1986-87, SCI continued to strengthen relationships with Episcopal congregations. Several this year have re-evaluated their level of support and have increased their giving. In November the women of one parish held their monthly meeting at SCI and then helped to pack "ditty bags," which were later distributed to 1,734 seafarers who came into the Ports of Philadelphia just prior to Christmas.

If you've ever wondered what makes it worthwhile for the staff at SCI to put in long hours - days - nights - weekends - at the institute and plying the waterfront in fair weather and foul, go back and re-read. In the words of the Book of Common Prayer, "Read, mark, learn and inwardly digest," and you'll catch some of the spirit of SCI/Philadelphia in 1987!

Director

APPENDIX 35: REPORT OF THE SENIOR CLERGY ASSOCIATION (RE-25)

First and foremost the sponsors and members of the group extend a heartfelt "thank you" to all the parishes and their committees for your gracious hospitality during the past year.

The varied list of locations, dates, speakers and topics is as follows: March 19th, 1986, The Engineers club where Father Roak, Father John Chesholm and Rev. Roberts and Harris spoke out of their long experiences in the ministry.

April 23rd, 1986, Richard Crawford of the Episcopalian Staff was our speaker at Cathedral Village.

May 28, The Rev. Lee Richards addressed the group at Cathedral Village.

Reconvening after the summer hiatus the Senior Clergy with their spouses have been hosted by Cathedral Village and the following parishes and it has been most enjoyable.

Sept. 18, Rev. Thomas McClellan, Rector of St. Mary's at the Cathedral was our speaker.

Oct. 23, Mr. Robert Robinson, President of the Church Pension Fund gave us useful information - again at the village.

Nov. 19, we convened at St. Thomas, Whitemarsh where the archivist, Mr. Glen Colliver was our speaker.

The Dec. 17th meeting at Cathedral Village was very special with Rt. Reverend J. Brooke Mosely celebrating The Eucharist after which convened fellowship and a gala luncheon with Christmas Festivity followed.

In March we were privileged to be the guests of Mr. Robert Scott, President of the Art Museum and enjoyed the exhibit of rare and ancient Chinese artifacts as well as a special luncheon in that artistic atmosphere.

On April 21st we convened at the Church of the Redeemer and were especially happy to have the Rt. Rev. Lyman Ogilby as our speaker.

On May 27th we convened at St. Davids, Radnor and were graciously entertained at a luncheon and addressed briefly by the Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett after which he conducted a brief prayer service in the historic chapel on the cemetery grounds.

As we look forward to our fellowship after the summer hiatus we will gather at The Church of the Redemption, South Hampton on Sept. 23rd with Father Carlson as our speaker.

On October 23rd we will be at Christ Church, Second Street above Market and in November we will meet at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill: Speakers to be announced.

In all probability the Christmas party will again be held at Cathedral Village and we look forward to it.

The sponsors and members of the group again want to emphasize their appreciation to all the priest and parishes which have been so hospitable to our senior clergy this past year.

The Rev. Thomas S. Logan, Sr. and
The Rev. Arthur Moody, Co-Chairmen
Senior Clergy

APPENDIX 36: REPORT OF THE SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE (RE-26)

1986-87 has been a year of transition for the Social Concerns Committee, just as it has been for the leadership of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. With eight members appointed annually by the Bishop and eight by the President of Episcopal Community Services' Board of Council, inevitable changes in membership have occurred as conflicting commitments have claimed some and as others have taken their places. The Rev. Paul D. Twelves, our able and dedicated chairman, resigned in January, as he has accepted an interim rectorship at St. Alban's Church in Syracuse, New York.

In June Bishop Bartlett sent a memorandum to all clergy in the diocese, inviting the names of clergy and laypersons sharing an interest in the area of social concerns and wishing to become involved at the diocesan level. Opportunities will abound for serving on special sub-committees, and from a pool of such proposed names added members will be appointed to the Social Concerns Committee periodically.

Paramount among the issues considered in the last year was a response to a resolution of the 68th General Convention in 1985, requesting "the several dioceses to initiate studies to consider the pastoral, personal, sociological and theological implications of abortion." The urgency of the issue was highlighted by the statistic that in 1983 one-third of all pregnancies in the United States had been terminated.

Of several possible approaches it was determined to send a questionnaire to every congregation based on the principles and guidelines adopted by the 65th General Convention in 1976 and reaffirmed by each succeeding General Convention. More than 730 completed questionnaires were returned from 67 of 171 congregations and overwhelmingly were in substantial agreement with the General Convention position, a principal point of which was "unequivocal opposition to any legislation ... which would abridge or deny the right of individuals to reach informed decisions in this matter and to act upon them." These results were forwarded to the Joint Standing Commission on Human Affairs and Health as requested.

Other actions included a resolution referred to, and adopted by, the Diocesan Council endorsing "an immediate and substantial increase in the minimum wage in order to provide a more adequate income and to maintain purchasing power for low-wage workers and their families in relation to the cost of living ..." This was prompted by the realization that the current federal minimum wage of $3.35 per hour is today worth only $2.80 in 1981 dollars, when it was last raised, dropping many working families below the poverty line. Our area legislators were advised and responded favorably.

After due deliberation the Social Concerns Committee has asked Bishop Bartlett to appoint a special Committee on Homosexuality to serve an advocacy function, primarily through educational efforts aimed at achieving greater public understanding and acceptance. This would channel a meaningful response to the call of the 68th General Convention in 1985 that each diocese find an effective way "to give life to the claim of homosexual persons 'upon the love, acceptance, and pastoral care and concern of the Church.'"

Periodic reports were received from the Committee on AIDS, which the Social Concerns Committee had been instrumental in establishing, and about apartheid developments, which had been the Committee's principal area of involvement a year ago.

Valuable and thoughtful presentations were made in the spring by the Rev. Robert A. Schiesler, Chairman of the Committee on Racism, by the Rev. Noble M. Smith on catastrophic illness for the Committee on Aging, and by Mrs. Laura Avery on human sexuality.

The Social Concerns Committee is committed to identify issues of peace, justice, and human welfare, to be an advocate for the people involved, and to raise these issues to the Church.

Henry B. Poor
Chairman

APPENDIX 37: REPORT OF THE SPIRITUAL GROWTH COMMITTEE (RE-27)

The Spiritual Growth Committee has continued its charge to serve the diocese as a resourse in matters concerning the spiritual life, under the leaderships of Michael R. Becker, Bishop Allen L. Bartlett, Jr., and the present appointee, Sharline A. Fulton.

Bishop Bartlett's charge to the committee includes: development of its own life as a working group whose inspiration flows out of regular common prayer and discernment; the inclusion of as full a representation of the diocesan family as possible, particularly as a diocese of great diversity: and meaningful interaction with other Diocesan Committees.

The committee's activity since Diocesan Convention, 1986:

- the CALENDAR OF INTERCESSIONS was distributed to the diocese at the beginning of the Advent and Pentecost Seasons. Plans are being discussed for inclusion of some kind, of our companion Diocese of Mityana.
- Ron Del Bene, Priest and Director of the HERMITAGE, a retreat facility in Alabama, led our Bi-Annual Prayer Conference at The Nevil Memorial Church of St. George in Ardmore. The committee is grateful to the Rector and people of St. George's for hosting a day appreciated by those who attended.
- On September 15th, we sponsored a day with Tilden Edwards from SHALEM INSTITUTE, for those engaged in spiritual direction and/or very interested in that ministry. St. John's, Lower Merion graciously hosted the day.
- Michael Becker continues to write informative and insightful pieces on prayer and spirituality for the diocesan mailing. Other members of the committee and diocese will add companion pieces to Michael's ongoing work.
- Committee members continue to provide leadership for quiet days, retreats, spiritual guidance, prayer groups, and other teaching opportunities.
- The future will include exploration for the founding of a Center for Spiritual Growth in the Diocese; a particularly strong interest expressed by Bishop Bartlett. As we pray for God's blessing on this diocese, through the work of this committee and all of the people, we invite the questions, suggestions, critique, and participation of our brothers and sisters as we all struggle to be faithful to the call of Christ to holiness.

The Rev. Sharline A. Fulton
Chair

APPENDIX 38: REPORT OF THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE (RE-28)

The Stewardship Committee completed its 11th year of service to the Diocese. Led by Fr. John Martin, the members of the committee worked with more than 20 parishes interested in teaching stewardship principles to their members. In addition, the committee members provided training for the visitors for the fall Diocesan visitation program.

Our understanding of the faith is that all things come from God, and that the call of Christ is that we act as caretakers, trustee and stewards of God's gifts. Jesus of Nazareth makes it clear that we do not own nor can we possess or dominate anything.

Diocesan Stewardship Education exists to help parishes learn more about their practice of stewardship and to enable them to be more faithful in using the resources God has given to them.

Over 50% of the parishes have used our PENNSYLVANIA STEWARDSHIP EDUCATION PROGRAM since 1976. Other parishes have utilized our members as speakers for Adult Forums, stewardship dinners and training sessions.

Fr. Martin has completed his term as Stewardship Officer. His leadership contributed to the design of an effective plan to train Diocesan Parish Visitors last fall. John's wisdom led to the scheduling of an important Stewardship Workshop next spring (1988) for the clergy of this Diocese. In all, his contribution to stewardship education has been extraordinary.

Our committee looks forward to 1988 knowing that our mission will flourish with the support of Bishop Bartlett and Diocesan Council. A new stewardship officer will be named, and the committee will work to meet the needs of our many parishes.

Special thanks to committee members.

APPENDIX 39: REPORT OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF (RE-29)

The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief is alive and well in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Parishes and individuals from this Diocese, in 1986, contributed over $100,000 as part of the more than four million dollars in grants made by the Fund last year.

The Presiding Bishop has stated that the mission of the Church is one of compassion, addressing the totality of human need, both spiritual and physical. The specific task of the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief is to respond to this Christian imperative to minister to the hungry and thirsty, the sick, the homeless, the refugee, the displaced, and the prisoner, to clothe the naked and to welcome the stranger.

The needs are great, both in this country and abroad, the time and resources too little. Can you help?

It is the Fund's desire to have a representative in each Deanery to explain the work of the Fund and to keep the needs of those in desperation before the Church. For information on the Fund and to be of assistance, please contact the Church House and a representative of the Fund will reply promptly.

Earl Parsons
Chair

APPENDIX 40: REPORT OF THE YOUTH MINISTRY COMMITTEE (RE-30)

The Youth Ministry Committee of the Diocese has met on a regular basis, to consult with Betty L. Creamer, the Coordinator, to chart the direction of Youth Ministry in our Diocese. What follows are highlights since the last report.

The Coordinator has conducted a detailed survey of present youth activities in the various congregations. She has found a great deal of variety in terms of programs for youth, as well as budget allocated for their use. In some Churches there is no budget item for youth or only a token sum at $50 to $100. Others show considerable commitment with the top range of $4,000 and even one parish at $40,000. The results of this survey have assisted us in designing programs for the future.

The Youth of our Diocese and their leaders have been involved, along with Betty Creamer, in several events at the Provincial and National levels, and in some cases their Ministry will take them out of the U.S.A.

For two summers, our Diocese has been represented in Central America by youth and adults who travelled to Honduras and Panama. In both cases they assisted the local community, working to rebuild Churches, supplying and erecting playground equipment, refurbishing a conference kitchen, and working closely with local leaders. Such cross-cultural experiences have helped the individuals, as well as their home congregations and the Diocese gain an enhanced vision of the world community in which we live. During the summer of 1988, Youth from our Diocese will travel to Alaska to help with homeless native Americans, and assist a priest in Fairbanks build a day camp.

The summer of 1987 will see sixty-three youth and adults from the Diocese attend the Episcopal Youth Event in San Antonio, Texas. This event will draw some 1800 from all over the Anglican Communion. Their meeting from July 21-26 will focus on the theme, "Open My Eyes." Hildegarde Shellmon, a member of the Committee, is part of the design team.

In early 1988 there will be an Inter-Anglican Youth Gathering at Stranmillis College, Belfast, Northern Ireland. Their purpose is to discuss issues of mutual interest. Later they plan to submit a report to the Bishops who will meet at Lambeth. Jeffrey Atkinson, a high school student from Redeemer, Springfield, will represent our Province at that meeting.

Closer to home, we are planning a response to the growing concern about AIDS among Youth. An educational conference for young people is tentatively scheduled for November 21, 1987 at St. Mary's at the Cathedral.

Plans for the future also include trying to locate a larger facility for week-end conferences. St. Timothy's Center at St. Paul's Elkins Park has served our Diocese well for four years, however, the space is no longer adequate. In the meantime, the Youth Ministry Office will move back to Church House.

Other plans being developed include: A Diocesan Convention for Youth to precede the regular Diocesan Convention in late October; a Jobs Program for Diocese and Province for the summer of 1988 to match young people who want jobs with needs at Churches, shelters, soup kitchens, etc.; expansion of the use of the afternoon youth club model in areas where there are large numbers of "latch-key" children who need tutoring and supervision; compilation of resource and program materials for use in Youth Ministry; a trip for youth and adults to the Soviet Union during the week of Orthodox Easter to help celebrate one thousand years of Christianity.

APPENDIX 41: REPORT OF THE FOOD CRISIS FUND COMMITTEE (RE-31)

The Committee has met several times throughout the year disbursing funds to 20+ food cupboards/kitchens throughout the Diocese. These feeding programs are independently operated; half are Episcopalian and half community based. All of them give to the needy, regardless of affiliation. Contributions come from individuals, ECW groups, and parishes.

Our annual questionnaire was sent to all recipients in the spring, and they continue to report busy activity with many young families and single women with children applying for aid.

On March 27 the Committee sponsored a program at St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia, featuring a panel from four cupboards; St. Mary's, Chester, Bucks County Opportunity Council, the Lighthouse, Kensington, and La Communidad, Kennett Square. Each described its operating procedures, problems, and gave a "success" story. It was an excellent program, but unfortunately, apart from the committee and panelists, the turnout was poor.

It is necessary that the Committee remind the Diocese each year that hunger still exists, and that their contributions are very important and meaningful.

Complete records of receipts and disbursements, as well as many letters of appreciation, are on file in the office of the Episcopal Church Women at Church House.

The total amount given during the ECW fiscal year, May, 1986 to April 30, 1987, was $14,529.00.

APPENDIX 42: REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION RESOURCE CENTER AND EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (RE-32)

Responding to the objectives set forth in the 1986-1987 Budget Proposal to serve the parishes of this Diocese in their individual programs of Education for children, youth and adults, the Diocesan Christian Education Committee:

* Developed a five-year plan that set new program goals for education to cover aspects of childhood, adolescence, adulthood and CE administration; identified human resources and support materials desirable and necessary for program.

* Created a three-Sunday Episcopal Community Services curriculum with separate or intergenerational units for children and adults, called "FRIEND TO FRIEND AND NEIGHBOR TO NEIGHBOR"; collated, packaged and distributed to 69 parishes (including 24 "Banner-Kits" for the ECS Celebration in May); designed for continued use in succeeding years; translated into Spanish to serve our Hispanic community.

* Worked closely with member groups in MISSION GOAL V of Diocesan Council to develop spirit of collaboration and to gain clarity about the total Diocesan Budget Process.

* Purchased and installed an IBM/HP computer system especially selected for the present and growing needs of the Center; began training and design for the data base.

* Scheduled consultations in the Center in response to requests of 37 clergy, 67 lay leaders; representing 47 parishes in the Diocese.

* Held on-site evening or Sunday morning programs with leaders of 15 parishes: Trinity, Solebury; St. Philip-in-the-Field; St. Francis-in-the Field; Advent, Kennett Square; St. John's, Norristown; St. Anne's, Abington; Grace, Hulmeville; St. Matthew's, Maple Glen; Emmanuel, Holmesburg; All Hallows, Wyncote; Holy Trinity, Lansdale; Epiphany, Mt. Airy.

* Held three major conferences to complete the first cycle of five: I. STORY AS THE HEART OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: a training workshop for Church School Teachers on Nov. 15, at Church of the Saviour; II. WHO ARE OUR ADULTS?/HOW DO WE MINISTER TO THEM?: a conference on adult education, March 13/14, with the Phila. Theological Institute, at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill. III. "CHILDREN'S WORSHIP": A WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS AND PARENTS on music, art, prayer, drama/storytelling and chapel, May 9, at St. Luke's, Germantown.

* Distributed first three editions of Center's newsletter: "MORE THAN ENOUGH"; created and distributed information sheet with support materials to encourage Vacation Bible Schools in this Diocese; also support to encourage adult Biblical literacy.

* Continued to provide support for the development of EFM, Education for Ministry; report is attached.

* Purchased new materials to support each of the four primary resources of the Church school: CHILDREN, PARENTS, TEACHERS AND PARISH STAFF; placed additional materials for youth, and adult education in the Center for reference, research and on-site consultation with parish leaders; maintained up-dated materials from 15 selected publishing houses.

* Supported reorganization plan for Christian Education in Province III; attended first National Episcopal Educators Forum by three members of the DCEC, in Colorado, April 21-25.

* Designed prototype for deanery meetings scheduled by Conestoga Deanery; set forth a series of workshops based on summer survey of parishes for teacher training and curriculum support to be held in deanery locations during fall/winter of 1987.

* Established, in association with the AVRL, a video committee to identify technical needs/resources to develop the use of video education and communication in parishes.

* Encouraged and established a program of volunteer staff members in the Center to serve as resource people for parish C.E. leaders and groups.

...continued to pray for wisdom and understanding as God's servants in order to participate in the teaching ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Chair

APPENDIX 43: REPORT OF THE COMPANION DIOCESE COMMITTEE (RE-33)

"May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me." John 17:23.

The purpose of the Companion Diocese program is to engage the participants in a tangible act which shows that our Lord's prayer to His Father is even now being answered. As companions, we proclaim our unity in Christ in the face of racial and cultural differences and the miles which separate us.

With this desire for unity as our scriptural basis and Jesus Christ as our foundation, we begin by stating our joy that God has put us together with Mityana as our companion. We are eager to begin our partnership of the sharing of gifts on both sides in a common task. One of the expectations is that we will become more open to change and growth. With that in mind, knowing that our expectations are also open to change, we set forth to our fellow Christians in Mityana these thoughts about what we hope to give and receive.

The implementation of our partnership seems to comprise three areas:

1. First and foremost are prayer, support and encouragement. We want to include Mityana in the prayers at all our services and to provide a prayer calendar enabling individuals to pray daily for specific parishes and clergy in Mityana. We hope that you will pray for the diocese of Pennsylvania in this way also.

2. We wish to increase our understanding and knowledge of Mityana, of your country, your history, your customs, and most particularly, your needs. We hope that you will want to learn about us in the same way. One most valuable gift that you could give to us in this area is a sharing of how your faith has sustained you through turmoil and of how being a Christian shapes your daily life.

3. We hope to share resources with you as we enter into areas of mutual service in the mission of our Lord. We leave it in the hands of our bishops to develop the details of what this might entail over you and to have some of our brothers and sisters in Mityana visit us.

In conjunction with these areas, there are other expectations we would like to share with you.

We expect to:

Be intentional about communication, in spite of inevitable frustrations in this area.

Be open and honest with you, willing to "speak the truth in love."

Stand as equal partners with you.

Increase our understanding of ourselves as we deepen our understanding of you.

Increase our effectiveness in our local mission work as the partnership deepens our understanding of mission in general.

Our earnest desire is that integrity and authenticity in our response to Jesus Christ should guide our relationship. We joyfully embrace the partnership concept of giving and receiving which seems to us to be summed up in these words:

"We love you; we very greatly need your help."

Amanda Smoot, Chair

APPENDIX 44: REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE (RE-34)

At a stated meeting of the Committee on October 28, 1986, following the 203rd Annual Convention of the Diocese, certificates of election were received from the Secretary of the Convention confirming the re-election of the Reverend Herbert E. Rowe as President of the Committee and Duffield Ashmead, II as its Secretary.

During the last fiscal year the Committee met monthly except for July and August, and in addition a special meeting was held in May to consider the future location of Diocesan headquarters.

Once again the Committee devoted a substantial amount of time to real estate matters. These included, inter alia, requests by parishes to sell portions of their real estate, requests by parishes to have the Diocese sponsor HUD supported housing for the elderly. The Committee has also monitored the progress of the Church of the Holy Nativity, Wrightstown, in going forward with their plans for a church, Sunday school and office complex.

The Committee continued to follow the developments in connection with the defaults of Hotel Rittenhouse Associates. A part of the puzzle was solved when the suit against Mr. Wolgin was settled on terms that the Committee believed to be very favorable. It would now appear that the present owners of the building are in a position to go forward with the completion of the building. Whether the space in the building will ultimately serve as the Diocesan headquarters will depend upon a number of factors including, of course, whether the owner of the building is willing to purchase the long-term lease owned by the Diocese. For this purpose, the Committee ordered and has received an appraisal of that interest.

Another matter which occupied considerable time for the Committee involved the proper allocation of income from mission endowment funds. With the advice of the Mission Endowment Committee, the Committee as a whole has, with the recommendations of the Bishop, allocated from the Sayers Fund alone during the past year the sum of $303,398, of which $200,000.00 was directed toward support of items contained within the Diocesan program.

Included among non-program items were grants totalling $12,898 for archival work. The Committee believes that the collection and maintenance of the records of the Diocese is extremely important, not only in terms of historical perspective but also in the interests of efficient records management. In order to help with this activity the Committee has consulted with Mark J. Duffy, Registrar-Historiographer of the Diocese of Massachusetts and Archivist of the City of Boston.

During the year the Committee approved Episcopal Elections in a number of Dioceses as follows: Venerable Arthur Benjamin Williams, Jr., Bishop Suffragan - Diocese of Ohio; Rev. Frank Kellogg Allan, Bishop Coadjutor - Diocese of Atlanta; Rev. Egbert Don Taylor, Bishop - Diocese of Virgin Islands; Rev. Germain Montinez-Marquez, Bishop - Diocese of Northern Mexico; Rev. Jeffrey William Rowthorne, Suffragan Bishop - Diocese of Connecticut; Very Rev. Edward Harding MacBurney, Bishop - Diocese of Quincy. In addition, consents were given to the holding of Episcopal Elections in a number of jurisdictions.

Another activity which has occupied significant time of the Committee has been the review of and consent to applications for candidacy, ordination to the Vocational Diaconate, the Diaconate and the Priesthood.

The Committee approved nominations to the governing bodies of Cathedral Village and The Episcopal Community Services. It also approved the appointment of John L. Harrison, Jr. as Chancellor, as well as the appointments of two Vice-Chancellors.

The Committee meetings continue to be held in the office of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of every month, except July and August. Those persons who would like to be present in connection with particular matters are requested to give the Secretary advance notice so that the agenda of the Committee can be facilitated.

Duffield Ashmead, III, Esquire
Secretary

APPENDIX 45: REPORT OF THE KEARSLEY/CHRIST CHURCH HOSPITAL (RE-35)

Founded under the will of Dr. John Kearsley in 1772, the year 1987 marks our 215th anniversary. Kearsley/Christ Church Hospital is composed of Independent Living Units with 87 efficiency and one bedroom apartments in addition to a 20 bed Long Term Care Unit.

Although Dr. Kearsley never saw the fruits of his labor come to bear, the Vestry of Christ Church inaugurated the operation in 1772. By 1832, Kearsley/Christ Church Hospital was sixty years old and an established care-giver. With the Diocesan Convention of that year establishing the separate churches of Christ Church and St. Peter's, the delegates also declared that vestrymen of both churches provide leadership. That tradition continues today with representatives from each church on the Board of Managers.

Kearsley/Christ Church Hospital probably is the oldest home for the elderly in the United States and is Episcopal related. Although a private non-profit corporation, our roots are with Christ Church and St. Peter's Church.

Our facility is at 49th Street and Monument Road on the grounds of the Bala Golf Club. Historically certified, the main building is over 125 years old. A new wing was constructed in 1981 and the main building (circa 1861) underwent a major renovation resulting in a revitalized campus.

In the face of a growing crisis, essentially a well documented shortage of nursing beds and elderly housing alternatives, the hope of the Board of Managers is that Kearsley/Christ Church Hospital will be able to respond to the needs of all who request help.

By the early to mid 1990's there is expected to be a crisis need for elderly services and our institution is in the planning phase of meeting that need. Briefly, to face and meet the expected demand, better and more comprehensive and innovative services will be offered in addition to any necessary expansion of our facility.

The history of Kearsley/Christ Church Hospital is a proud one. Kearsley is recognized by its residents, their families and friends as a retirement community which provides an enhanced lifestyle for older adults.

We, the Board of Managers, Management Staff, Employees and Residents of Kearsley/Christ Church Hospital extend an invitation to those interested to call to arrange a tour of our retirement community.

Director of Development

APPENDIX 47: REPORT OF THE ARCHIVIST (RE-41)

The major event of the 1986-1987 Convention year for the Archives, as well as for the entire Diocese, was the transition from the episcopate of Bishop Ogilby to that of Bishop Bartlett. The transfer of the records of the period of Bishop Ogilby's leadership in the Diocese as archdeacon and assistant bishop, coadjutor and diocesan bishop, 1971-1987, provided the opportunity to preserve a more complete documentation of an episcopate than had been done for previous bishops of the Diocese. These records are receiving preliminary processing and temporary finding aids that will allow access to the materials as needed to support the current diocesan administration. A record management program is being developed for efficient records creation, maintenance, and disposal during Bishop Bartlett's tenure.

Another important event of this Convention year was the visit, initiated and supported by the Standing Committee, of Mark Duffy, former archivist of the Diocese of Massachusetts and presently archivist of the City of Boston, to conduct an institutional evaluation of the archival program of this Diocese. His full and excellent report will help the Diocese move ahead with a responsible and creative records management and archival program. The Rev. John F. Hardwick is the liaison for archives for the Standing Committee. Bishop Bartlett has also appointed the Rev. Harry Krauss, III, Registrar of the Diocese. The Rev. F. Richards remains the Historiographer.

Inquiries and requests for historical, genealogical, architectural, and other information came in by phone and letter from across the United States (Florida, Georgia, Iowa, California, Maryland, Kentucky, New York), from around the world (Australia, England, Canada), and around the Diocese (individuals and parishes). Three ongoing research projects for parish histories are being conducted by professional historians who used or were supplied information from the archives this year: Deborah Gough (Christ Church, Philadelphia), Dick Contasta (St. Martin-in-the-Fields), and Bennett Hill (Good Shepherd, Rosemont). Extensive data was supplied to the Church of the Epiphany, Royersford, in preparation for their centennial celebration. Many of their records were destroyed in a fire in 1903. The archivist visited Christ Church, Ridley Park, to advise that parish on the development of its archives program. Law and architectural firms and newspapers sought information about people and properties. Three researchers requested information about the church work among the Jews in the 19th and 20th centuries. This is only a sampling of the many and varied requests received by the archivist.

As more finding aids are developed, making the archival holdings more accessible and widely known, inquiries will increase and continue to exceed staff time available. In addition, the records management function will require greater attention and effort. Priorities will have to be set and some request be denied. It is hoped, however, that the Diocese can continue to provide as full as possible access and use of its valuable archival holdings.

Glenn Colliver
Archivist of the Diocese

APPENDIX 50: PROPOSED RULES AND PROCEDURES (JUNE 25, 1988)

1. Nominations may be made only by the Search Committee or by a Clergy or Lay Deputy.

2. No speeches in support of candidates will be made until all nominations are closed.

3. Five minutes will be allowed for speeches in support of each candidate. No seconding speeches will be allowed; however, more than one person may speak within this time limit. Speeches will be called for on behalf of candidates in alphabetical order.

4. Name of candidate may be withdrawn at any time by:

   a. candidate, if present;

   b. nominator, if candidate not present--except that, in the case of a person nominated by the Search Committee, name may be withdrawn by such sponsor as designated by the Chair of the Search Committee.

5. Voting will be by written ballot. Ballots will be distributed to eligible voters when they register.

   - After announcing the results of each ballot, the Judge of Elections will ask for a period of quiet reflection. A hymn may be sung.
   - The Judge of Elections will then give the signal for the taking of the next ballot, announcing any change in the slate. After a brief period for marking the ballot, he will instruct the ushers to collect the ballots.
   - A correct list of nominees will be projected on screens during each ballot.

6. Each Church or Mission entitled to vote shall cast one Lay Ballot, even though there may be three Deputies of a Parish present. Alternates are not entitled to a seat or vote except when they serve in place of the regular elected Deputies and are registered with the Registrar.

7. Article IX of the Constitution (Diocese of Pennsylvania Constitution and Canons, 1982, p. 10):

   > The election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan of this Diocese shall be made in Convention in the following manner. The Clergy and Laity shall ballot separately, and a concurrent majority of both Orders shall be necessary to a choice. Provided, that if less than two-thirds of either Order entitled to seats and votes be present then two-thirds of the votes of that Order shall be necessary to determine the choice of such Order.
   > And Provided Further, That the necessary quorum for the election shall consist of not less than one-half of the Clergy and Lay representations respectively entitled to seats and votes in Convention.

8. In the event an election has not occurred by 5:00 p.m., the Convention will determine at that time whether to continue balloting to a certain time, or whether to reconvene at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 26, or on some other day that the Convention may decide, for further balloting.

9. The Canons of the Episcopal Church require that a constitutional majority of the Convention sign a form testifying to the fitness of the Bishop-elect to be consecrated. Therefore, when one of the candidates has been duly elected Bishop Suffragan, the ushers will distribute testimonial forms for signature. Deputies should remain in their seats until they have signed this testimonial.
